The speaker:

Palani Ammal @ Sharon graduated with an LLB Hons (2nd Upper) from the University of Northumbria. She then underwent the Bar Vocational Course and was awarded a Very Competent standing in 2006.

She was subsequently admitted as a Barrister of Lincoln’s Inn, London in 2006 and the Malaysian Bar in 2007.

Her primary area of work is in civil dispute resolution with sub-specialities in Clinical Negligence, Breach of Confidence, Medical Product Liability, as well Healthcare Ethics with a special interest in criminal litigation focusing on Medical Law.

She has completed consultancy work for the Ministry of Health Malaysia in drawing up Informed Consent Forms for Ophthalmic Surgeries, and is a committee member of the Law Revision Committee (AG’s Chambers) Latent Damage and Compendium of Personal Injury in Malaysia.

She regularly provides updates to Doctors, Hospital Managers and other Allied Healthcare Professionals on medical negligence cases, breach of confidence and product liability as well as medical law related to criminal offences.

She is the current Secretary of the Medico-Legal Society of Malaysia 2016/2017, a member of the Medico Legal Society of Singapore, Medico Legal Society of London, World Association for Medical Law and a committee member of the Selangor Bar Committee in charge of Continuing Legal Education.

Her future aspiration is to set up an ‘Institute of Independent Medical Experts in Malaysia’.
