The Construction Industry and Adjudication Act , 2012 is in full motion with a rising number of cases registered with the AIAC (Asian International Arbitration Centre, formerly known as KLRCA) each year. There are over 400 fully accredited adjudicators registered with the AIAC delivering decisions within the tight time frame imposed by the Act. There are also a rising number of practical issues faced by adjudicators in administering their role. It is time that an interactive workshop be held which will provide a platform for guidance and the exchange of ideas.

This interactive workshop will address numerous topical issues in adjudication including these practical issues:

- Non-payment of fees the practical aspects of dealing with recalcitrant parties and dealing with appointment and retirement
- Non-responsive parties addressing no payment response/conduct of proceedings
- Jurisdictional challenges facing a challenge/injunctive threat/dealing with it in the decision making process
- Unpaid party's burden of proof how to deal with the burden of proof to be discharged in the decision making process
- Latest case law on CIPAA

About the speakers:

Tan Swee Im was called to the Bar as a Barrister-at-Law from the Middle Temple in 1987 and admitted as an Advocate and Solicitor of the High Court of Malaya in 1988.

In 1999 she started her own firm, Messrs Tan Swee Im & Co. and in 2006 merged with Messrs P Y Hoh & Tai to form Messrs Tan Swee Im, P Y Hoh & Tai. Since 2015 the firm is known as Tan Swee Im, Siva & Partners. Her main focus is on construction industry and privatisation matters. Recognised by Who's Who Legal as 1 of only 5 leading construction lawyers in Malaysia.

She is a Fellow of the Chartered Institute of Arbitrators, a Fellow of the Malaysian Institute of Arbitrators, a Fellow of the Asian Institute of Dispute Resolution, a Fellow of the Chartered Institute of Building, a Fellow of the Malaysian Society of Adjudicators, a Fellow of the Dispute Board Federation, an arbitrator, adjudicator and mediator on the panel of the Asian International Arbitration Centre, a qualified adjudicator, a CIDB Accredited Mediator, and holds a Diploma in International Commercial Arbitration. As an active contributor to the Master Builders Association of Malaysia she was actively involved in the drafting of the CIDB Form of Contract for Building Works and led the drafting on the new standard form of design and build contract promoted by the CIDB.

She and her team prepared the Working Guide, Standard Forms and Checklists on the adjudication process under the Construction Industry Payment And Adjudication Act 2012 (CIPAA) published by the Construction Industry Development Board (CIDB) to assist parties to make and defend payment claims under CIPAA.

James P Monteiro is the principal partner of the firm James Monteiro and has over 20 years of experience as an Advocate & Solicitor. James specialises in the areas of Energy and Construction & Engineering, including project advisory, risk management and dispute resolution. James has acted for a variety of clients both foreign and local, large multi-nationals, PLCs and GLCs. He is a founding Member and Current Chairman of the Society of Construction Law Malaysia, Member of the Malaysian Institute of Arbitrators, Sub-Committee of the Malaysian Bar Council Sub-Committee on Construction Law and he was the Past-President of the University of Hertfordshire Alumni Association of Malaysia.

Leong Hong Kit a construction claim consultant is attached to MAC Consultant in Kuala Lumpur.

He has extensive experience in contentious construction disputes, where over the past 24 months he has been involved in more than 300 adjudication cases as party's representatives.

With a Masters Degree in finance and economics earned in the UK, he followed the unconventional path of starting his career in the construction industry instead. After more than a decade of sheer dedication and hard work, he is now a Chartered Building Engineering, a Chartered Quantity Surveyor, AIAC certified Adjudicator and a certified Project Management Professional (PMP). As a certified trainer, Hong Kit regularly gives talks in his areas of expertise like contract management and construction dispute prevention. One of his main interests is to create knowledge sharing sessions that allow the development of a stronger relationship between the industry and the industry players. This also allows him to address how industry creates the right context that encourages the industry players to be more responsive to industry's changing needs, thus attaining sustainable competitive advantage.
