Summary:

Medical law has a wide reach. It is often mistaken to be limited only to Medical Negligence. This seminar will demonstrate that there is so much more to Medical Law, arising from the interaction between medicine and the law.

The talk covers insights on the practical aspects of Medico-legal Litigation, covering topics such as Pre-action Discovery, Candour, Parties, Pleadings, Pre-trial Papers, Experts, Trial Advocacy, Appellate Advocacy and Written Submissions.

SPEAKER

Karthi Kanthabalan is a partner at Messrs P S Ranjan & Co., and practises mainly in Medical Law, acting for clients such as patients, healthcare practitioners, hospitals, professional bodies, and professional indemnity providers. The work covers such subjects as Medical Negligence, Patient Safety, Professional Practice and Conduct, Medical Ethics, Commissioning of Expert Opinions, Presentation of Expert Evidence, Assessment of Damages in Personal Injury Cases, Medical Council and Dental Council Proceedings, Inquiries into Adverse Incidents and Sudden Deaths, Criminal Proceedings, and cases with a Medical Element, including Matrimonial Cases, Partnership Disputes, Employment Disputes, and Defamation Cases involving Professional Reputation. He has also conducted many trials and has appeared in the Court of Appeal and the Federal Court. He has an interest in charity work and sports. He is a member of the Medico-Legal Society of London and the Medico-Legal Society of Singapore.

All payments must be made in advance of the event. Registration must be accompanied with proof of payment to guarantee your place. Registration is on a first-come, first-served basis.

Registration will close at 5:00 p.m., 23 Nov 2023 (Thurs). No further registration will be accepted once the deadline has passed, or if the seminar is full. Cancellations must be made in writing. There will be no refunds for cancellations made after 17 Nov 2023 (Fri) but substitutions are allowed.

The organiser reserves the right to modify, cancel or postpone the event, should circumstances arise that make such action necessary.
