

To Members and Pupils-in-Chambers of the Penang Bar,

Introducing "Lawyers Unplugged": Profound Conversations Spanning the Legal Arena

After months of planning, the Young Lawyers and Pupils Subcommittee is elated to present our newest initiative, "Lawyers Unplugged". This is a podcast series meticulously crafted involving both young and senior lawyers as well as those related to legal practice.

About "Lawyers Unplugged":

- A Diverse Legal Forum: This series aims to be more than just a podcast; it is a collection of conversations where seasoned advocates and budding legal professionals meet, bridging gaps and sharing thoughts, ideas as well as wisdom.
- Authenticity at its Core: Through raw, genuine discussions, we unravel the legal realm's multifarious nature, ensuring that every member, be it a veteran or a novice will have subject matters which resonates.
- Varied Perspectives, One Goal: Our episodes span from intimate chats with Penang's legal luminaries to young practitioners' candid experiences, presenting a spectrum of insights that will certainly expand our legal horizon.
- Elevating through Collaboration: Our inaugural podcast is a joint venture with the Continued Professional Development (CPD) Subcommittee and subsequent episodes will similarly spotlight collaborations with different subcommittees, ensuring a dynamic blend of subjects and voices.
- Bridging Generations: Central to our mission is the intention to provide pupils and young lawyers with insights into the practical world of lawyering, uniting those with depth of experience with those coming from fresh and novel perspectives.

Premiere Episode Alert! - Mentorship Unveiled:

Join us on 10 Nov 2023 as we delve into "Navigating Difficult Clients & Cases ~ A Guide for Young Lawyers in Malaysia." In collaboration with the CPD Subcommittee, this episode discusses the challenges and intricacies faced by young lawyers when dealing with complex cases and demanding clients. Building on the foundations of the CPD's esteemed "Mentor-Mentee Programme," the aim is to provide young lawyers with adequate tools and insights needed to traverse these challenges aptly.

Your Feedback, Our Growth:

Feedback from our esteemed members is vital. Your insights will help us sculpt the future narrative for "Lawyers Unplugged" ensuring its relevance and impact.

A Proviso:

As we encourage open and constructive discourse, please note that opinions expressed are solely those of the individual contributors and might not align with the Penang Bar's official stance.

Join us on this exhilarating journey as we elevate conversations, challenge paradigms and spotlight the multifaceted voices that define our profession. Together, let us make "Lawyers Unplugged" a voice piece for Penang's legal community.

Audrey Wee Li Ye
Chairman
Young Lawyers & Pupils Subcommittee

