SPEAKER

Honey Tan Lay Ean has a Bachelor of Laws (LLB) from the University of Buckingham, and Master of Laws (LLM) from Warwick University. She is a Barrister of the Middle Temple and was admitted as an Advocate and Solicitor of the High Court of Malaya. She is a mediator of Malaysian International Mediation Centre focusing on family matters and a member of International Academy of Collaborative Professionals. She was the immediate past Chairperson of the Family Law Committee and Women's Rights Committee.

The law and especially the procedure regarding ancillary relief is not well known.

This workshop is to enable family law practitioners to gain more insight into how ancillary relief applications ought to be conducted. It is aimed at lawyers who are already practising family law.

This seminar is not suitable for pupils.

Bring along your laptop, the Law Reform (Marriage & Divorce) Act, Guardianship of Infants Act, Married Women And Children (Maintenance) Act and the Rules of Court 2012.
