Topic: Logan, A Man For Our Time

Speaker: Mike Gibby

Mike Gibby is a British-born educator who has spent the majority of his life in Southeast Asia. He holds a B.Sc. in Biology from the University of Leeds and an M.Sc. in Evolution from the University of Liverpool.

His primary interests in the life sciences are in the related fields of ecosystems, evolution, and conservation. As a committed educator and outdoorsman, he delighted in introducing his students to the varied delights of mangrove, seashore, rivers, and rain forests. Since retiring 15 years ago, he has been a resident of Penang spending much of the time exploring its many wonders.

He has written several books on the nineteenth century history of Penang, Perak and of Sabah. Today, he is the owner of two creaky knees, the result of many years hiking, cycling, and kayaking in Europe, North America, and Asia.
